The North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners investigates complaints against dentists and dental hygienists accused of violating the Dental Laws of North Carolina. If the Board of Dental Examiners finds that a licensee has violated the Dental Laws, it may discipline the dentist/dental hygienist by taking action against the license (i.e., suspend or revoke the license.) The Board does not have statutory authority to award monetary damages for pain and suffering, or to require that a dentist/dental hygienist refund fees or pay for any re-treatment.

The North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners cannot give legal advice or act as your attorney; nor does the Board have jurisdiction over fee disputes.
